COME LEARN ABOUT THE
ARIZONA DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES PLANNING COUNCIL'S PROPOSED FIVE YEAR PLAN (2011-2016)

The mission of the Arizona Developmental Disabilities Planning Council (ADDPC) is to represent the interests and needs of persons with developmental disabilities throughout the state of Arizona. The ADDPC engages in advocacy, capacity building and systemic change to increase inclusion and involvement in the community, and promotes self-determination, independence, productivity and integration to support persons with developmental disabilities and their families in all facets of community life.

The five year plan will govern the ADDPC goals, objectives and activities over the next 5 years. Your feedback on the plan is important!
